

KANNAPOLIS DISTRICT – CENTRAL NC COUNCIL 2010-2011 DISTRICT AWARDS INFORMATION

Just as advancement recognition is an essential element of the Scouting youth program, adult recognition for achievement is also important. Below are several ways that the leaders in your Cub Scout Pack, Boy Scout Troop, or Venture Crew can receive recognition for their service.

Training Award Knots

There are several training award knots that can be earned by adult leaders, as follows:

- Tiger Cub Den Leader Award
- Cub Scout Den Leader Award
- Webelos Den Leader Award
- Cubmaster Award
- Cub Scouter Award
- Pack Trainer Award
- Scoutmaster Award of Merit
- Boy Scout Leader Training Award
- Scoutmaster's Key
- Venturing Training Award
- Venturing Advisor's Key

Note that the Scoutmaster Award of Merit cannot be earned, but is rather given only via nomination (use this form: <http://usscouts.org/awards/smawardmerit.pdf>). For the others, please see the progress record sheets on the BSA website for the requirements (see the following webpage: <http://www.scouting.org/media/forms.aspx>). Turn these forms in at any Roundtable.

District Awards

There are also several annual recognition awards for outstanding leadership which will be presented at the District Awards Ceremony on February 24, 2012. These awards are as follows:

- Den Leader (Tiger, Wolf-Bear, and/or Webelos)
- Cubmaster
- Assistant Cubmaster
- Scoutmaster
- Assistant Scoutmaster
- District Commissioner
- Scouter of the Year
- District Award of Merit (multiple available per district)

Please see the District Awards Nomination Form for more details on these honors. Note also that the District Award of Merit is for distinguished service in the district over several years. This award, which has its own nomination form, is the highest honor given at the district level.

Council Awards

The highest award given at the council level is called the Silver Beaver Award. It is also for distinguished service over many years and again has its own nomination form. These great honors will be bestowed at the March 8, 2012 council awards banquet in Albemarle.
