

Take Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills (IOLS)

Who: Registered Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters

What: Take Introduction to Outdoor Leadership Skills (IOLS)

When: 11/14-15/2020, starts at 1pm on 11/14

Where: Camp John. J Barnhardt

Why: This is a nationally designed course and is meant to give Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters the basics for running their Scouts BSA troops. This is one of four courses needed to be considered “trained” for the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster position and all registered leaders in those positions who have not taken the course should plan to take it.

Cost: $30

Participants need to complete the pre-screen form and record temperatures starting 14 days in advance (located on registration page). Masks will be required and should be on hand for use throughout the course. Also, SCO_800 Hazardous Weather training is a pre-req and must be completed online at the ScoutingU site accessed through my.scouting.org.
