

2015 Central NC Council Golf Classic

Underwriting Opportunities

Underwriting provides opportunities for vendors and individuals to support the Central NC Council's scouting programs while receiving prominent recognition for their contribution. By helping underwrite a function of the event, you will help defray the costs of the tournament while helping generate more of the needed dollars used to deliver Scouting's character and leadership development programs.

All underwriters will receive recognition in event publications and signage. Additional recognition opportunities are outlined below.

Event Dinner--$7,500

The Classic Dinner hosts an after tournament meal for all participants, beverages and podium address from top sponsors. Underwriter will receive prominent table recognition for sponsorship of Classic Dinner and recognition from the podium.

Player Gift Packages--$5,000

Each player in the morning and afternoon flights will receive a gift package for participating in the golf tournament. Underwriter will receive prominent recognition at check-in area, program, as well as on the player gift that is handed out.

Classic Luncheon--$5,000

The Classic Luncheon hosts a pre-tournament meal for all players. Participants will also receive beverages, and a podium address from top sponsors. Underwriter will receive prominent table recognition for sponsorship of Classic Luncheon and recognition from the podium.

Photography and Frames--$3,000

Each team in the morning and afternoon flights will have their group picture taken at a preselected hole. The underwriter for photography and frames will receive hole recognition and have their company name and logo printed on each picture.

Welcome Breakfast--$2,500

To ensure tournament players begin their day off the right way, breakfast, coffee and juice are provided after checking in. Underwriter will receive prominent recognition at serving tables and seating areas.

Beverage Carts--$2,500

Beverage carts will patrol the course ensuring no tournament player goes thirsty and will include an arrangement of beverages to help quench each individual players thirst. Underwriter will receive prominent recognition on beverage carts throughout the morning and afternoon flights.

Golf Balls--$2,500

At registration, each player will receive a sleeve of golf balls for the event. The underwriter for the golf balls will have their company name and logo prominently displayed on the golf ball.

Event Signage--$2,500

Every tournament sponsor will receive hole and banner signage recognition for their contribution to the Central NC Council Golf Classic. The underwriter for the banner and hole signs will have their logo, along with Eagle level sponsors and Central NC Council, printed on each individual sign and banner as recognition for their contribution.
